

Raise the Barn! ROCK the State!

Friends & Allies,

Finally it is here, election day! I know we are all tired of the fight. Tomorrow no more hearing barbs and blunders from the campaign trail. But I have a way to feel better about politics today!

ROC's Barnraiser campaign is about unifying a large cross section of Californians to build momentum for change in Sacramento. As you will see on November 16, when our Legislator Scorecard is released, a majority of lawmakers are already with us. We just need them to be bolder and more innovative. Help us help them be bold by supporting our campaign. We need to raise a little over $13,000 to reach our goal! We have 10 days left!

Join our growing list of cool backers. Receive a gift in return. There are special events in which wonderful people, amazing food and enlightening conversation will warm your heart and delight the senses. Share in the important work of citizens. We must guide our policy makers to make the hard decisions that revitalize and renew our food system. Food and agriculture are part of what makes California great. So please hit the link to back Roots of Change!

Thank you,
